

CITY OF KINGSTON SHOULD HAVE 10,000 RED CROSS MEMBERS

If we are to show that we are really supporting and sympathizing with our soldiers and our country we should join the Red Cross. Not just because of what the dollar will buy, but because of what the dollar proves in the way of moral support and unanimity of militant patriotism.

We have gone beyond our allotment in other things, but largely because of the generosity of the comparatively few.

Red Cross membership is the popular, the convincing way for all of us to show our patriotism—the poor as well as the rich.

Other movements were counted merely in dollars.

Red Cross membership is counted in men and women.

Are you going to be counted in support of the soldiers and the government?

If Ulster county is to supply 20,000 members, Kingston must supply at least half of this number.

Are YOU one of the 10,000?

TWO REJECTED AT FORT SLOCUM

Fort Slocum, Dec. 19.

Folks at Home: Well, I am not so happy now as Jack Ryan and myself were turned down as physically unfit this morning. We have been here a week and expected to be assigned to our units by this time only to be rejected in the final examination.

Kelder and Nolan were accepted, as far as I can find out. There is such a crowd here that it is impossible to find anyone. We cannot even find any mail which we know is here for us somewhere.

We thought that we could return at once but it is impossible to get a pass off of the island. You see when you are rejected your examination papers are sent back to the receiving station here and from there you are given your discharge and transportation is given you. It may be a couple of days before these papers are returned so if Jack and I can get a pass we are going home without our discharge and transportation. It is awfully crowded here and accommodations are not plentiful for men not accepted.

The medical examination is not very strict although they pass quite a few fellows back for minor ailments. The "mild" cases were out yesterday at lunch just as our crowd came up and we went without for once but made up for it at supper at night.

It is a hard job for the government to quarter all of the men here but they manage to give them a bed. It may be a couple of days before we can get off of here but Jack and I will be home soon.

JACK NEWKIRK.

FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE BOYS SCOUTS

Two Interesting Photoplays Will be Shown at the Kingston Opera House on December 26—Pictures of Scouts and State Troopers to be Features.

"The Adventures of a Boy Scout," an interesting photoplay in five reels, will be shown at the Kingston Opera House on Wednesday, December 26, for the benefit of the Boy Scouts. The picture will be shown three times; once in the afternoon and twice at night. In connection with this feature will be shown pictures of the New York State Police, showing Major Chandler and the troopers in action. Kingston folks are proud of Major Chandler and the good work that he has accomplished as superintendent of the state police, and will no doubt be glad to welcome the opportunity of seeing a picture of the major and the troopers in action.

The scout picture will be an interesting one and well worth seeing. The Boy Scouts are being called upon by the president and by the nation to serve in ways never thought of before and the scouts are fitting it and doing their bit in an efficient manner. Tickets for either performance are 25 cents, including the war tax, and are being sold by the scouts, and the tickets may also be obtained at the box office of the theatre, before the performance. It is hoped that the public will liberally respond, thus helping in a small way the local council of the Boy Scouts of America. Incidentally the public will be treated to an entertaining performance, for both pictures mentioned are very interesting.

Santa Makes Friends.

Santa Claus is the man of the hour at the Rose-Gorman-Rose store, and is very popular with the children. Santa has been kept very busy shaking hands with the children and listening to their accounts of their Christmas wishes.

The Christmas Vacation.

The public schools of the city and also the parochial schools closed this afternoon for their Christmas vacation.

MINSTREL PROGRAM AT EAST KINGSTON

A minstrel show, which will no doubt be a huge success, will be given at East Kingston Hall Saturday evening, December 22, by the East Kingston Dramatic Club, the curtain rising promptly at 8:15 o'clock, so as to afford ample time for those who wish to dance after the conclusion of the performance, for which Palen's orchestra will furnish excellent music. To accommodate those from this city who wish to attend, stages will leave the Central Postoffice at 7:30 o'clock. The end men who will look after the well-timed jokes will be Joe Whitaker, Vincent Redden, Charles Carroll, Charles Amad, William Leonard, Michael Fay, Thomas Leonard and John McNally. The musical part of the program, which will be pleasing, is as follows:

TO SHORTEN SESSION OF LEGISLATURE

By Telegraph to The Freeman. Albany, Dec. 21.—A movement is on foot to limit the forthcoming session of the legislature to three months.

So far the movement has not taken definite shape but several members of both the Assembly and Senate who have considerable influence are said to favor the move. There is a general sentiment in favor of speeding up legislative procedure as much as possible this winter and it is possible that sufficient support for the proposal will be lined up to insure its adoption.

Those who are fostering the movement declare that it would be possible to get down to real work earlier in the legislative year if committee work is speeded up and that all of the business to be handled at this session can be gotten out of the road.

Opposition to the move, however, is likely to develop in the Senate. The Senate members will close their terms with this session and will in most instances be up for re-election next year. Many of them have "pet" measures affecting their districts that they want passed in order to carry out pledges to their constituents. It is pointed out that if the "early closing" agreement goes through, much of this minor legislation may be lost sight of in the final rush which always characterizes the last two or three weeks of any session, and particularly a short one.

The long drawn out special session this summer swung many members of both houses into line for the plan to limit the session to three months but whether they will line up in sufficient strength in both houses to put such an agreement across is problematical. In any event there will be a determined effort made to have the matter considered. The attitude of the Democrats in the matter is doubtful. They have a big batch of New York city legislation to press and some have expressed the fear that its chances would be endangered by a short session.

The ratification of the Federal Prohibition amendment promises to be by far the most spectacular measure debated by the legislature this winter. Speaker Thaddeus C. Sweet of the Assembly is of the belief that the legislature will pass the amendment, basing his prediction on the attitude of the last legislature on the Hill-Wheeler local option bill. In any event, the debate promises to be interesting.

Legislation necessary to amend the constitution giving the women of the state will add color to the winter's proceedings. There is no doubt that all necessary legislation on this subject will be passed but it is also certain that opinion will differ as to just what is needed. The newly enfranchised voters are expected to present their needs to the legislature in increasing numbers and their presence at committee hearings and in the lobbies will be an interesting feature.

The municipal ownership issue is going to cause a lot of talk. The Hyman administration is pledged to municipal ownership in New York city and is going to seek legislation on the subject. Just what they will ask for is yet uncertain. Judge Hyman, mayor-elect, on a recent visit to Albany admitted that it was a big proposition and must be approached with care. Several up-state cities have leanings toward such an experiment, notably Syracuse, which is now investigating its street railway system, and if legislation is passed authorizing municipal ownership of public utilities, there will be a fight to have it made general in its application instead of applying to New York city only.

Reed's Sentence Modified.

Following a protest from the student body of the Poughkeepsie high school over the disqualification from school athletics for four years, imposed on Leonard Reed, a member of the football team, the advisory council of the school has modified the sentence to one year from date. This will not prevent him from taking part in interclass games and contests. He struck one of the members of the Kingston high school team during a football game in Poughkeepsie between the two schools.

A Narrow Escape.

A large icicle dropped from a roof on a building on Fair street Wednesday afternoon and came very near hitting a young lady on the head. The young lady, just a second before the icicle fell, stepped back to speak to a friend who had called her.

The Christmas Shopping.

Including today, there are only three more shopping days before Christmas. The stores will be open every evening this week and also on Monday evening of next week. Merchants report a brisk Christmas trade.

Melted Some of the Snow.

The mild spell of Wednesday afternoon caused a slight thaw and quite some of the snow disappeared. Another day or two of mild temperature, with a warm sun, would take much of the snow away.

Sunday Delivery in Albany.

In order to avoid an accumulation of Christmas mail in Albany there will be an early morning delivery of parcel post packages Sunday morning.

WAR AT A GLANCE

Peace negotiations between the Bolshevik government of Russia and Germany have struck a snag, according to an unofficial report originating in Petrograd.

It was stated, but without any official confirmation, that the German envoys at Brest-Litovsk have rejected the Bolshevik terms and that the Russian delegates were recalled to Petrograd.

In view of the obscurity surrounding this information the amount of credence and importance to be attached to it cannot be gauged today.

The armistice arranged at Brest-Litovsk will be in effect until Jan. 12, although one of the terms of the protocol was that it could be terminated by either side upon seven days notice.

The Russian terms have not been disclosed, but the indications were that the Russians demanded evacuation of territory to which the Germans refused to yield.

The latest report from Berlin as to the peace negotiations was that the proceedings were being carried out in accordance with the plans of the German and Austrian foreign offices.

The counter revolution in southern Russia seems to be gaining strength and today information was received that part of the Roumanian army has joined the anti-Bolshevik forces.

The Austro-German forces in northern Italy continue to batter the Italian defenses on the Asiago Plateau. Their capture of Monte Asoleno was a gain of considerable strategic importance. The invaders have brought up their long range guns and are shelling the lines of communication in the Italian rear.

The comparative lull on the western front continues. The statement was made in Paris today on high authority that the French are now prepared to meet the threatened German offensive no matter where it may come.

GERMAN SPIES AT ASHOKAN DAM

Also at Wilbur Bridge and Central Railway Tunnel—But They are Only Movie Actors Posing for a Patriotic Picture Play.

Members of a moving picture company who are taking part in a big war movie, the scenario of which was written by Robert W. Chambers, the celebrated American novelist, are stopping at the Eagle Hotel while scenes around the Ashokan reservoir are being filmed during the day. The war movie is to be produced by the Vitaphone Company. Both Mr. Chambers and the producing company are making voluntary contributions.

Thursday and today several troopers of the state police in charge of Major George Chandler were busy at work at the Ashokan reservoir. The story of the play is full of thrills, and a German spy is supposed to attempt to blow up the dam and is foiled by the state troopers.

Later pictures will be taken at West Point, and at a tunnel on the New York Central, and at the Wilbur bridge on the West Shore. According to the movie story German spies are trying to cut off New York city from all communication with the outside world and from food and water by wrecking the railroads and water supply. The West Shore is put out of business by blowing up the Wilbur bridge, and the New York Central by blowing up a tunnel, but both attempts are foiled.

In fact the movie is to represent war activities in New York state and has been authorized by the state defense council, and already the officials and employees who are to star in the film are working on their parts. The whole film when completed is to be put together in the rapid fashion of movie stories, and while professionals will carry forward the plot, the real heads of the state departments will be pictured at work.

There will be scenes showing Governor Whitman and the executive mansion at Albany. As Governor Whitman is too busy at work to be bothered by movies being taken in his office he allowed a still picture of the office to be taken and this resulted in a reproduction in the studio in New York of the governor's office to the minutest detail and there Governor Whitman himself will appear in the picture.

The hero of the movie play is a state trooper, and while not a real sure enough member of the troopers, being a professional actor, he is dressed in the costume and works with the real state troopers in the foiling of the German spies.

The play when completed is expected to be full of "pep" and well worth seeing.

The director in charge of the filming of the play is John Robertson, who while in Kingston is a guest of Major and Mrs. George Chandler.

Catskill's New Exemption Board.

Catskill's new exemption board for Greene county has organized with Frank S. Decker, chairman, and George W. Irwin, secretary. Dr. William M. Rapp will have charge of the medical end of the work, and Willis P. Goldin is acting clerk.

NEW PALTZ FOLKS HAVE AWAKENED

Editor McCarthy Says They Are Up
And Doing And Have Exceeded
Their Allotment in Various Lines.

New Paltz, N. Y., Dec. 20, 1917.
Editor: The Kingston Freeman.

Dear Sir:

Those people of New Paltz who are actively engaged in their country's struggle against Prussianism take exception to the statements in a recent issue of The Freeman to wit: "New Paltz, whose citizens have been slow to realize that the United States is at war and whose efforts in patriotic endeavor have been markedly behind all other sections of Ulster county."

As a matter of fact, New Paltz as a community, has exceeded its allotment in every patriotic endeavor. The Second Liberty Loan was oversubscribed here to the tune of about $10,000, the Y. M. C. A. fund was oversubscribed by nearly $50, and in the Red Cross and Library Fund campaigns New Paltz has made as good and even better showing than have been made by many other larger towns in Ulster county.

As to men in service, New Paltz now has nearly 20 names to her credit. Three New Paltz men entered the army last week, and the pastor of the Dutch Reformed Church here has resigned his pulpit in anticipation of a call to duty as chaplain in the regular army.

While The New Paltz Times confesses to have severely criticized some people in the village for their lack of patriotism, we must amend here our criticism to the effect that we hold no animus against New Paltz as a village, but that we have taken arms against certain classes of people the like of which may be found in any community—who are heedless of their country's struggle; who think of nothing but material advancement for themselves, and who by their indifference balk every move made by patriotic people for the good of the whole.

We people in small communities consider ourselves as one big family, and therefore take advantage of the inherent tendency among families to tell each other of our faults. Among ourselves we have all the faults that may be found in any family and while we quarrel among ourselves we nevertheless move as one when an outsider attempts to interfere with our affairs. This may somewhat convey to you the feelings you have aroused among the people in New Paltz by the statements referred to above, and we know you will be fair enough to rectify any error you may have made in the premises.

In conclusion, permit us to state that there are a number of men and women in this village of whom New Paltz and Ulster county are justly proud; who are doing more than their share of war work and who by their acts, are daily influencing others less enthusiastic to awaken to their country's call. It is in justice to these good and patriotic people that we feel moved to defend for them the good name of their village.

Thanking you in advance for your careful consideration of the above, we are Fraternally yours,
THOS. F. MC CARTHY.

ESOPUS.

Esopus, Dec. 20.—Simon Van Wageningen of Staatsburg and Henry Pardee of Connelly have each recently purchased Sedan Ford cars of our local agent, Percy Mott. They are the cars which Mr. Mott and his brother, Leslie, made the trip to Buffalo to procure.

Mrs. Phoebe McLean and son, Harold, have moved to this village for the winter.

The Rev. J. J. Lyons went to Marlborough yesterday to assist the other pastors composing the team for the educational jubilee work.

Mrs. Hashrouck Freer recently visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mott, at Poughkeepsie. Her grandfather, Norman Cole, who formerly resided in this village, but now lives with Mrs. Freer's parents, is enjoying fairly good health in spite of the fact that he is eighty-six years of age. His old friends and neighbors will be glad to know that he is feeling so well.

Next Sunday morning, December 23, the Rev. J. J. Lyons will preach a Christmas sermon at the regular hour of service, 10:45. In the evening a new idea will be inaugurated, that of having the Christmas tree exercises on Sunday evening. This custom has prevailed in a number of places for years but will be something new in Esopus. The tree will be placed in the church and trimmed on Saturday and will serve as a reminder of the day which is being celebrated. During the morning service, special music will be rendered at the evening service beginning at 7:30 o'clock and the pastor will give a short talk to the children, after which the presents will be distributed. It is hoped that every member of the Sunday school will attend. Also all parents and friends are urged to be present and enjoy seeing the children made happy.

The house of John Renne of West Feenus was destroyed by fire on Sunday. The fire is supposed to have been caused by an overheated stove.

BLOOMINGTON.
Bloomington, Dec. 20.—Miss Myrtle Osborn, who has a position in Kingston, spent Sunday at her home here.

All of those taking part in the singing of the Christmas exercises are requested to meet on Friday evening in the Sunday school room of the church.

A number from this place have visited Kingston this week to do their Christmas shopping.

The Reformed Sunday School will hold their Christmas exercises on Wednesday night, December 25. Everybody is invited to come and enjoy the program.

All the children taking part in the Christmas exercises, the superintendent, Miss Florence Relyea, would like them to come to practice on Friday afternoon at the church.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rickard of Kingston were in this place on Wednesday at their old homestead.

SUPERVISORS WANT MANY CHANGES

Repeal Township School Law, Give Counties Option of Establishing Tuberculosis Hospitals And Make Excise Violations Town Charges.

Repeal of the present township school law because it is "oppressive and inequitable," repeal of the law which requires each county to establish a tuberculosis hospital of sufficient capacity which shall be equal to the average rate of death for the past five years because it is "oppressive, unnecessary and uneconomical," and legislation which would allow the cost of investigating violations of the excise law to be charged back by the county on the towns where such violations occur because "the cost of obtaining convictions is in many cases not a matter of county-wide or even town-wide importance," were three important recommendations made by the board of supervisors, which convened at the court house shortly after three o'clock Thursday afternoon.

Salary Re-adjustment.
The committee on salaries and employment of county officers reported the salary list for the ensuing year, the list being the same as last year except in the following particulars:
Three recording clerks at the county clerk's office instead of four recording clerks, at a salary of $100 each, making a total expenditure of $1,200 instead of $2,400.

Salary of county superintendent of the poor fixed at $2,000 per annum instead of $1,500.
Salary of assistant district attorney fixed at $1,350 instead of $1,200.

The committee reported that the county clerk had presented a recommendation relative to salaries of employees of his office, providing for a sliding scale of wages, but in view of the fact that Chapter 237 of the Laws of 1911 fixes the amount of salaries of such employees and owing to present conditions in general, the committee did not feel that it could recommend the adoption of the plan by the board, unless legislation by the enactment of law does so and changes the present statute.

The recommendation of the county clerk, accompanying the report, recommended that the appropriation for assistant clerks be $2,700, to be fixed according to a scale determined by the county clerk. This would not increase the appropriation beyond the previous appropriation but would regulate salaries according to the clerk's ideas of efficiency and service. The clerk therefore recommended one index and docket clerk whose salary should be $900 minimum and $1,125 maximum; recording clerks whose salaries should be $600 minimum and $725 maximum.

Under the schedule proposed by the clerk, the salary of the index and docket clerk would be:

One year	$ 900
Two to five years	975
Five to ten years	1,050
Ten years or more	1,125

For recording clerks, the schedule would be:

One year	$600
Two to five years	625
Five to ten years	675

LADIES' WRIST WATCHES.

Are Reliable Timers Only When at Least 15-Jewelled.

The Christmas demand for the ladies' high grade wrist watches, such as are sold by George B. Styles, the watch expert, Fair and John Sts., is unusually large.

Styles sells no ladies' wrist watch of less than fifteen jewels, with the Hamilton or Elgin works.

The feminine wrist is not made to be shackled. It deserves the small, dainty watch; and no small, dainty wrist watch for ladies is a reliable timekeeper if it is not as good as full jewelled.

So it is wise to make this your Xmas gift in the "Wrist Watch" department, without delay for Styles's supply is limited and factories are being forced into restricted production.—Advertisement.

Over ten years 725
Inasmuch as the clerks now employed had been in the service of the county from six to fifteen years, he recommended that the salaries be fixed at the maximum rate.
The report was filed.

Apportionment of Bank Tax.

The committee on county treasurer and sealer reported the apportionment of bank tax as follows:

City of Kingston—$14,615.35.
Town of Lloyd—for state, county and town purposes, $445.82; Highland lighting district, $135.98; School District No. 3, $295.93; Highland water district, $86.83.

Town of Marlborough—for state, county and town purposes, $269.82; Village of Marlborough, $17.87; School District No. 2, $117.50.

Town of New Paltz—for state, county and town purposes, $1,460.31; Village of New Paltz, $752.28.

Town of Saugerties—for state, county and town purposes, $1,015.52; Village of Saugerties, $1,091.64; School District No. 10, $1,091.64.

Town of Shawangunk, for state, county and town purposes, $132.78; Walkkill fire district, $27.96; Highland water district, $27.96; for schools, $132.78.

Town of Wawarsing, for state, county and town purposes, $1,556.38; Village of Ellenville, $429.25; School District No. 20, $697.69.

The report was filed.

Tax Rates Reported.

The committee on ratio and apportionment reported the tax rate for state purposes, county purposes, general town purposes inside villages, general town purposes outside villages; highway purposes, special district purposes, highway purposes inside villages. The report was filed.

Excise Violations—Local Matters.

The committee on county judge and district attorney reported that it had been brought to the attention of the committee the considerable of the expenses of the district attorney's office for detectives and other expenses was due to alleged violations of the excise law in "no-license" towns.

The committee continued:

"It was explained to us by the district attorney that in order to obtain a conviction it was necessary to in nearly every case obtain the necessary evidence through detectives or persons resident outside of the town for the reason that native and residents of these towns were in most cases reluctant to obtain the necessary evidence and to testify against their neighbors. Yet the investigations were made by the district attorney upon the complaint of residents of such towns.

Administer Justice, But Make Towns Pay.

"While the prosecution of these excise violations is of course a matter of administering justice in general, it is, so long as the local option statute remains in effect with one town perhaps dry and an adjoining town wet, a matter largely of local interest, and the prosecution of a violator of the law and the obtaining of evidence for a conviction is in many cases not a matter of county-wide or even town-wide importance, but may affect principally a few neighbors of the alleged violator.

Would Change State Law.

"We further suggest to this board that if it be legal so to do, the change for investigating violations of the liquor law where such investigations cannot be made either by agents of the excise department or the state constabulary, be made by the district attorney at the expense of the towns in which such alleged violations exist, and in the event such action be not legal, then we recommend that the members of the legislature be requested to endeavor to effect legislation to permit such action."

The report was filed.

Resolutions Introduced.

The following resolutions were introduced and adopted:

By Supervisor Kotts, to adopt the report of the committee on ratio and apportionment fixing the tax rates.

By Supervisor Fraisher, to adopt the report of the committee on county treasurer and sealer relative to apportionment of bank tax.

By Supervisor Stehman, that the district attorney be authorized to draw warrants against the court and bury for fund to an amount not exceeding $500 for the miscellaneous expenses of his office.

By Supervisor Schoonmaker, that the sureties on the undertaking of the county superintendent of the poor be required to qualify in the sum of at least $20,000.

By Supervisors Lounsbury, Brink and Gray, to adopt the report of the committee on salaries and employment of county officers.

Want Township School Law Repealed.

By Supervisors Sagendorf and Lounsbury:

"Whereas, the operation of Chapter 228 of the Laws of 1917, known as the Township School Law, has, in the opinion of this board, been a failure and failed to accomplish the purpose for which it was enacted and is oppressive and inequitable and takes from the local school districts the right to home rule and the local autonomy which they formerly enjoyed.

"Whereas, such law has generally increased the cost of education in the

"Resolved, that it is the opinion and desire of this board and of the various constituencies which its members represent, that the said Township School Law be repealed.

"Further resolved, that the senator of this district and the assemblyman from this county be requested to do their utmost to secure a repeal thereof.

Further resolved, that a certified copy of this resolution be forthwith transmitted by the clerk of this board to such senator and assemblyman."

Amend Excise Law, Too.

By Supervisors Schick, Coons and Schoonmaker, to adopt the report of the committee on county judge and district attorney and requesting that the senator and assemblyman of this district be urged to endeavor to secure legislation permitting the expenses of investigating violations of the excise law to be charged back by the county against the respective towns in which such violations occur.

Bigger Tuberculosis Hospital Oppressive.

By Supervisors Schermmerhorn, Kolls and Lyons, that the county law which compels each county to establish a tuberculosis hospital of sufficient capacity which shall be equal to the average rate of death for the past five years is in the opinion of the board of supervisors oppressive, unnecessary and uneconomical, and that the law should be amended so as to make it optional with each county to establish and maintain such a hospital, such option to be exercised by the board of supervisors, and that the senator and assemblyman be requested to do their utmost to secure such an amendment.

On motion of Supervisor Sagendorf, the board adjourned until Thursday evening, December 27, at 7.30 o'clock.

Magazine to Feed Pipe.

Long smokers are assured by the invention of a pipe into which additional tobacco is filled from a magazine on one side of the bowl as the original charge is consumed.

Energy and Laziness.

What we call laziness in a healthy human being is something very different. It has nothing to do with the lack of energy or love of repose. On the contrary, observes the New York Independent, the boy most inattentive to his lessons is frequently the boy whose inexhaustible energy wears the life out of his parents and teachers. He hates the fifth reader, but he will forget supper to finish his paper bound copy of Dead Eye Dick, the King of the Outlaws. He hates to write compositions in class, but he finds it no labor to compose squibs satirizing his classmates for the school paper, though the tax on his ingenuity is as great in the latter case as in the former. He does not like drawing lessons, but he loves to draw, and grumbles about bringing in wood for supper, but he will carry forests to build a bonfire. He finds gymnasium work a bore, but he submits to more exacting discipline from his baseball coach than any teacher would dare to impose.

Odd Church Bells.

A curious story is told of the bells of Messingham church, England. It is said that a long time ago a traveler passing through Messingham noticed three men sitting on a stile in the churchyard and calling out, "Come to church, Thompson!" "Come to church, Brown!" "Come to church, Wilkins!" And so on. Greatly surprised, the traveler asked what it meant. He was told the place having no bells, they called the folk to church in this way. The traveler remarked that it was a pity that so fine a church should be without bells, and at the same time asked the men if they could make three for the church if he would pay for them himself. They readily agreed to do this. By trade the three men were a tinker, a carpenter and a shoemaker. When next the traveler passed that way he found the three men ringing three bells, which said "Tine, tonk, pluff," being made respectively of tin, wood and leather.

KINGSTON, N. Y., DEC. 21, 1917.

The city of New Rochelle, which is just a little bigger than Kingston, has been having the experience of having dumped upon it thousands of United States volunteers for whom no living accommodations had been provided and who would have suffered intensely if the hospitable inhabitants had not opened their houses to the strangers. If anybody thinks that an incident like this should occur in the process of raising an army he should consult a specialist in mental weakness. If not pronounced crazy, he should at least be put into an old men's home, since he is a survival of a past age. He is in the same class as Champ Clark, who professed to see but little difference between a conscript and a convict, and with Bryan, who figured that in case of war a million men would rise up over night, fully armed, and vanquish the foe.

As time goes on and experience accumulates men whose minds are not hopelessly fossilized discard and alter their old notions. There was a day, when war was a simple affair and an army could live on the country it invaded, when it was a glorious thing to volunteer to serve one's country. The able-bodied man who waited to be drafted was considered—in most cases justly—a slacker and coward. But conditions have changed. It is now in some cases actually unpatriotic to volunteer. This lesson was impressed on England when she entered the war and so many of her hardy minors volunteered that a scarcity of coal resulted. At the same time so many of her skilled mechanics went to the front that her manufacturing of war materials were crippled. Hosts of the volunteers had to be called back from the trenches and set at other work. It was found that about five workers at home were required to keep one fighter in the trenches and common sense indicated the advisability of employing every man in the occupation, whether fighting, manufacturing or farming, for which he was best fitted. In this way the principle underlying what we call the selective draft was established. Canada made the same error as Great Britain and suffered so greatly from it that she has now adopted, when almost too late for that small nation, the same principle of a selective draft.

The United States, in so far as it has accepted and even solicited volunteers, has made the same error as Great Britain and Canada. Of course, our country is so big and we have such an enormous man power that the harm done is relatively insignificant, but the principle is wrong just the same. Of the thousands of young men who crowded New Rochelle some are suitable for soldiers and sailors, while others would be far more useful to their country at home. At any rate, it would have been better for them to wait until called upon and placed by competent authority where they would be most useful. It is likely that before we start this war every man who wishes to serve his country will be given an opportunity, and it only hinders progress to crowd to the front. We sympathize with the ardent young man who seeks glory in volunteering, but we distrust his judgment. We imagine that in the end he will be more highly esteemed than the youth who calmly waits for the Government's summons and serves where he is needed rather than where he wants to be. It is a safe prediction that if the world ever sees another great war it will be fought wholly by conscripted men, with a consequent gain in efficiency and a diminished loss of lives.

While the fever of investigation is on at Washington a thorough examination should be made of the Postoffice Department. According to Congressman Steenerson of Minnesota the reports made by Postmaster General Burleson are designed, intentionally or otherwise, to deceive the public. For example, Mr. Steenerson furnishes proof that while the report of the Postmaster General for the year ending June 30, 1916, claims a surplus of $5,200,000, the Department was actually paid out of the Treasury Department during that period $5,500,000 on account of a deficit in the postal revenues for the fiscal year. It is difficult to see how this can be explained. At any rate, the claims repeatedly made that the Postoffice Department is making profits are pure bunk, since no account is ever taken of the tremendous investments in postoffice buildings and other property. Anybody in business can figure that he is making enormous profits if he ignores all "overhead expenses," including a salary for himself, but he would find himself the object of pity and laughter. Yet this Mr. Burleson, who seems to be ignorant of business management, is anxious to have the Government take over the telephone and telegraph systems and put them in his charge. This would be an unspeakable calamity if he managed them as he does the mails. Letters and papers are delayed intolerably and the service gets worse daily. Even the magazines which the public is invited to send to our soldiers are delayed in delivery until their interest has almost gone. If our railroads, express companies and telegraph and telephone lines ever get into a similar situation it will be a black day for everybody—business men especially.

Christmas Pageant at Trinity.

The story of Christ, in recitation and song, will be given at Trinity M. E. Church, on Sunday evening. This beautiful service will be rendered by a hidden choir and as the story progresses the three shepherds in their oriental costume will appear and speak about the guiding star. The angels in their white robes appear and sing of "peace on earth good will toward men." The Christ child in the manger is presented with gifts by the three wise men and the pageant closes by a hymn of praise, rendered by the choir. The effect of beauty and worship is increased by the effective lighting design. After the pageant the "White Christmas" will be observed. Realizing more than ever the true significance of the words "It is more blessed to give than to receive," the classes of the Sunday school will present gifts to the king. Each class will have its representatives who after appropriate verses or songs will lay their gifts at the foot of a beautiful white cross, which will occupy the center of the program. Some very beautiful ideas will be carried out in presenting these gifts. No pains are being spared to make this service one long to be remembered. Miss Mutterstock, the musical director of the choir, is in charge of the service.

PINE HILL.
Pine Hill, Dec. 21.—U. S. Grant and wife left for Europe on Sunday for Schenectady, where they expect to remain for the winter. It is said that Mr. Grant is placing himself under the care of a specialist in that city. His health is not good.

Sylvanus and Herbert Townsend, R. B. Livingston and families moved to Kingston on Tuesday, where they will be employed in the Brush Factory.

Two more Pine Hill boys were called for service with Uncle Sam and will report to Napanoch on Friday of this week. They are Basil W. Smith and Walton Parsons.

An entertainment with the subject of increasing the membership of the Red Cross unit of Pine Hill will be held in the Presbyterian Church Hall on Friday evening of this week. We hope to see a large turnout in support of this worthy cause.

Father Hayden, former pastor of the Catholic Church, Pine Hill, is at Camp Xavier, S. C., doing service as an army chaplain. Father Hayden had many friends here among Protestants as well as Catholics, and his genial manners will win him many friends in army life.

The coal situation in Pine Hill is becoming a serious problem. Nothing but coarse coal can be obtained and many people cannot use it. The coal dealers, and one local dealer, A. D. Hill, can only deal this out in small quantities.

The familiar whizz of the automobile on our village streets has been a thing of the past for over a week owing to the heavy fall of snow.

If there is a contemptible creature now in existence it is the man who goes about saying he had no business to get in this war, think we only ought to fight on American soil they do not say where on the American soil they have no feeling of sympathy for our French and English allies or our American Canadian friends who have been fighting for the past four years. There is some sort of excuse for this idea among our German population but the native born American who advocates this idea ought to be held up to the derision and contempt of his neighbors. Glad to report that Pine Hill has but very few of this traitorous class.

THE CLOVE.
The Clove, Dec. 20.—Mrs. DeWitt Stokes visited friends in Cottekill and Kingston a few days last week. Mr. and Mrs. John C. Yeaple and daughter, Beatrice, went to Kingston on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Sheeley visited friends in Saugerties, Pa., last week.

Elwin Coddington of Kingston visited his home here on Sunday.

Miss Gladys White of Kerkonkson is visiting her sister, Mrs. Grover Smith.

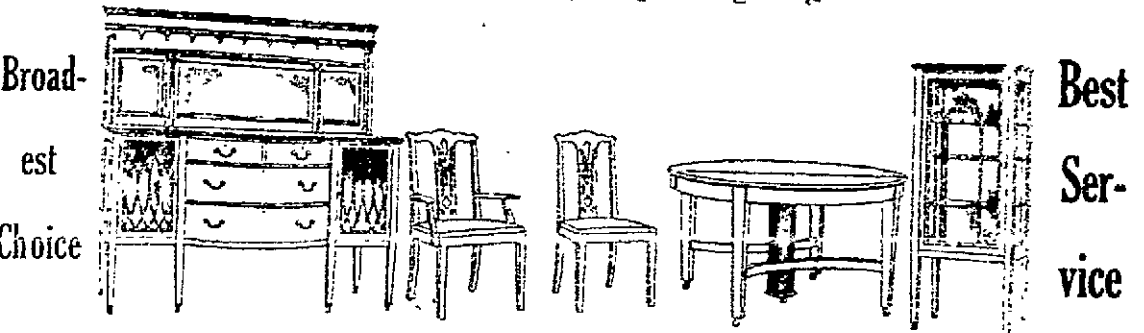

Weather permitting, the Sunshine Class will meet at The Clove Chapel on Sunday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock for a Christmas service. All the little ones are invited to come.

RECIPES FOR CHRISTMAS SWEETS

Do you know you are to have your best chance for war service this month? Everybody, children and grown ups, likes candy. This is the month everybody eats candy and many people make it in their homes.

But this year everything is different. We are at war. We shall celebrate Christmas, but in a different way. We shall want sweets for Christmas but they must be a different kind of sweets. We must save our sugar to send abroad to the people who have only what we give them.

Take the candy boxes you expect to fill for your friends and put into them the "sweets" made according to these recipes, and as you fill them say, "This is my Christmas gift to the children in Belgium and France."

Chocolate Dainties.

Put through the meat chopper one-half cup each of dates, figs and nut meats. Add one tablespoon orange juice, a little grated orange peel and one square of melted unsweetened chocolate. Mould into balls and roll in chopped nuts or granulated sugar. This mixture may be packed in an oiled tin, put under a weight until firm, then cut in any shape desired.

Old-Fashioned Molasses Candy.

2 cups (1 pint) molasses, 1 tablespoonful vinegar, 2 tablespoonfuls (1 ounce) butter substitute, 1 level tablespoonful baking powder, 1 teaspoonful vanilla or ginger extract. Put molasses, vinegar and butter into a sauce pan. Bring to a boiling point and boil, stirring all the time until the mixture is brittle when dropped into cold water. Stir in baking powder and extract and pour into a buttered tin. When nearly cold pull until glossy. Cut into small pieces and lay on a buttered plate or wrap in waxed paper. Sufficient for one pound of candy.

Popcorn Candy.

1 cup syrup, 1 tablespoonful vinegar, 2 or 3 quarts of popped corn. Boil together the syrup and vinegar until syrup hardens when dropped in cold water. Pour over freshly popped corn and mold into balls or fancy shapes for the Christmas tree. Little popcorn men will please the children. Mark in the features and outlines with melted chocolate.

Either honey, maple syrup, molasses, white cane syrup or corn syrup may be used.

Crystallized Fruits.

Use your own preserves. Peach, pear, apple, quince or watermelon rind will do. Drain from the fruit all syrup possible. Cut any size desired, sprinkle with sugar, and dry in the warmer or a very slow oven. It may be necessary to sprinkle the fruit again with sugar during the drying. When dry enough not to be at all sticky, sprinkle with sugar and pack in layers, with wax papers between. This fruit may be used for dipping in bitter chocolate for bitter-sweets.

Fruit Paste.

Put through the meat chopper enough cherry, peach or quince preserves to make a half-pint with the juice. Heat fruit and add two tablespoonfuls of gelatine, previously softened in a very little cold water. Stir well and continue stirring until it begins to cool and thicken, then pour into oiled dish to make a layer one inch thick. Let dry slowly, sprinkle with sugar and place in box with waxed paper between the layers. A mixture of dried apricots and dates may be used for this paste. Wash apricots and soak overnight in enough water to cover. Pour off water, bring it to a boil, pour over apricots, and let stand until cool. Put apricots and dates through meat chopper and proceed with the proportions as given.

Bitter-Sweets.

An attractive variety of candies may be made by dipping sweet fruits in bitter chocolate. Use for this purpose dates, citron, candied orange peel or crystallized fruit. Melt unsweetened chocolate in a double boiler. Keep the chocolate just warm enough to prevent solidifying. With a silver fork drop pieces of fruit in chocolate. See that each piece is completely coated, then remove to waxed paper to harden.

The above is approved by the U. S. Food Administration.

Must Be One or Other.

Donald walked up to a rather masculine looking woman with short hair and said: "Say, lady, are you a man?" And then, having received no answer, he inquired: "Say, mister, are you a lady?"

U. S. FOOD ADMINISTRATION HINTS IN HOME ECONOMICS.

A Tea Party Without Tea.

Three meals a day are enough for any of us. When we add another meal to the three, we are using just so much food, which we do not need, and somebody else needs badly. When you ask your friends in for the afternoon ask them to a talk and work party, not a tea party.

Let it be known that you have taken a stand against the extra meal and be proud of doing what you consider right. Don't be apologetic for lack of refreshments; treat it as a matter of course, and do it in the same spirit that you knit socks or sweaters for the soldiers.

Save Soap.

Soap is valuable. The U. S. Food Administration urges every housewife not to waste it. Every cake of soap contains fat that the world abroad is hungry for and also glycerine that is needed in the making of explosives.

It is the duty of every true-blue daughter of Uncle Sam, therefore, to see that no soap is wasted in her home. See that the children don't let it float in the tub or wash bowl. Make your own scrubbing soap, if possible. If you don't do this, use soap powder whenever you can instead of hard soap. The latter contains about 85 per cent fat, while soap powder has only about 35 per cent. Of course, the powder is not suitable for toilet purposes, but for scrubbing and for rough cleaning it will answer perfectly well.

If you don't make your own soap sell your saved fats to the soap maker. Remember soap is valuable. Treasure it!

A War-Time Christmas.

1917 marks our first Christmas of war. Suddenly the spirit of the Christ-child has taken on a new meaning. "He that loveth his life for my sake shall find it" is a precept now being put into practice. Fathers and sons have put aside peace-time pursuits to give of their lives for world righteousness.

And every wife and mother who has bidden them good bye with a smile on her lips and a light in her eye has given of her own life vicariously. She is ready to suffer separation, anxiety and sacrifice that righteousness may prevail.

As this first Christmas season approaches, her heart thrills with the thought of her own contributions to these momentous times. Individual gift-giving sinks into insignificance. Something bigger has come into her life. She is losing her life that she may find it.

It is a giving of self. Christmas cheer fills her own heart in helping to bring it to cantonment and camp. Already she has sent comfort kits and Christmas packages to those at the front. Now she is devoting herself to those soldiers still here and to their families.

"How can I do most to help win this war?" is the question she continually asks herself. And always she turns back to her own kitchen to find there her real work in the present struggle for the world's redemption.

To keep a clean heart and a steady aim, our soldiers must be well fed. This she knows.

She also knows that this first Christmas of war for her now marks the fourth Christmas of war for the brave women of France. They have known the thrill of that first Christmas when they gave of their still plentiful stores.

Since then there has been for them two Christmas seasons when they gave from their more and more depleted stores. They are now facing their fourth Christmas of war, still with a brave smile and courageous spirit but with an ever tightening food supply.

Insistent has been their recent warning that the next few months will mean actual privation and need if abundant help is not forthcoming from the food supply of the United States.

Every woman in America is preparing her Christmas baskets, in marketing for her Christmas dinner, in arranging for entertainment and festivity, should feel this enormous responsibility of sharing her food supply with those fighters and friends in France.

Less wheat in bread and pastry, less butter on the table and in cooking; more turkey, chicken and fish in place of meat; more fruits and sweet-meats in place of candy and sugar desserts—all these requests of the food administration should be borne in mind in preparing the Yuletide menus.

It is woman's most direct and most important part in the world war. It is losing her life to find it and it is hastening the day when there shall be real "Peace on Earth, Good Will to Men."

Christmas Sweets and a Clear Conscience.

Oatmeal Macaroons.

1 tablespoon vegetable oil, 1/2 cup honey or corn syrup or molasses, 1 egg, 1 1/2 cups oatmeal, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 1 1/2 tablespoons rice flour, 1/2 teaspoon baking powder.

Combine the oil, syrup and beaten egg. Stir in the other ingredients. Drop from a teaspoon onto a greased pan or baking sheet, and bake in a moderate oven about 15 minutes.

Popcorn Balls.

1 cup dark corn syrup or 1 cup molasses, 1 tablespoon vinegar, 1 tablespoon butter substitute, 2 quarts popped corn.

Boil the syrup, vinegar and butter substitute to the crack stage. Pour hot over the freshly popped corn. As soon as cool enough to handle, rub a little butter substitute on the hands and shape into balls or flat round cakes.

Fruit Paste.

Put through the meat chopper enough cherry, peach or quince preserves to make a half pint with the juice. Heat fruit and add two tablespoons of gelatine, previously softened in a very little cold water. Stir well, and continue stirring until it begins to cool and thicken, then pour into oiled dish to make a layer one inch thick. Let dry slowly, sprinkle with sugar and place in box with waxed paper between the layers. A mixture of dried apricots and dates

The KITCHEN CABINET

A woman should always keep her trouble to herself or at least until she meets somebody who is looking for it.

Fun gives you a forcible hug and shakes laughter out of you, whether you will or not.

THE GOOD OLD POTATO.

We are now enjoying the fine potatoes that are once more plentiful and cheap. Potatoes are at their best when simply prepared, such as baked or boiled. A generous supply of potatoes will lessen the bread consumption and thus help in the saving of wheat. When baking potatoes scrub them well and grease them lightly, the skin will be softened and there will be very little waste. Baked potatoes should be served just as soon as they are done, to be in prime condition. If it is necessary to wait for a late comer, break open the potato and let out the steam, then return to the oven. If the late comer is very late, put a slice from the top of the potato and scrape out the inside, season with butter, onion juice, celery salt and pepper, with a little hot milk or cream, beat well and return to the shell; place in the oven to brown.

Hashed Brown Potatoes.—Cut two cupfuls of cold boiled potatoes into small pieces, season with salt and pepper, cook three minutes in one-third of a cupful of bacon drippings, stirring constantly. Let stand a few seconds to brown underneath, then fold like an omelet.

Potato Soup.—Boil three medium-sized potatoes and when soft rub through a sieve. Scald a small sliced onion in a quart of skim milk with a stalk of celery cut up fine. Take out the vegetables and pour the milk slowly on the potatoes. Melt two tablespoonsful of butter or other fat, mix with two tablespoonsful of flour, and when well blended add to the soup. Season with salt and pepper, let boil up, strain, add two more tablespoonsful of fat and sprinkle with parsley to serve.

The number of vegetables eaten, the amount of cereal to cook and the amount of meat to serve are all things for every thinking woman to put time upon these days. An onion saved, a potato left over, a spoonful of squash may be put into a warmed-over dish, but many families rebel at leftovers.

Put through the meat chopper enough cherry, peach or quince preserves to make a half pint with the juice. Heat fruit and add two tablespoons of gelatine, previously softened in a very little cold water. Stir well, and continue stirring until it begins to cool and thicken, then pour into oiled dish to make a layer one inch thick. Let dry slowly, sprinkle with sugar and place in box with waxed paper between the layers. A mixture of dried apricots and dates

Should Use Zinc Rivets.
It is not wise to fasten zinc-iron sheets together with iron or steel rivets. These soon rust if not painted, and the rust penetrates through the edges of the iron encircling the rivets, and thus proves disastrous. Only zinc or zinc-covered rivets should be used.

Olden-Time Face Powder.
Prof. M. P. Philbrick of the University of Washington told the Washington State Philological society that women of the seventeenth century powdered their cheeks with corrosive sublimate—bichloride of mercury—and with white lead. And they perfumed their gloves with ambergris.

C. OF C. POLLS CLOSE TO-NIGHT

Secretary Hoernmans of the Kingston Chamber of Commerce stated today that he desired to call attention of all members of that organization to the fact that the polls close at 8 o'clock tonight for the annual primary election, nominating directors for 1918.

Members who have not mailed in their votes are asked to bring or send them to the Chamber of Commerce rooms before 8 o'clock tonight. The offices at No. 574 Broadway (upstairs) will be open all afternoon and all this evening.

The secretary said that while he is aware that this is an extremely busy season for the retailers and others, the time of the election was fixed by the by-laws and he could not change the time this year. He desired to remind the members that five minutes of time are all that would be required in filling out the ballot and mailing it, too late for the tardy ones this evening, but not too late for sending or bringing to the election rooms tonight.

BUY AN HONEST ENGINE
from the Dealer You know

For farm help the "New-Way's" supreme. It demands neither pay, Nor three meals a day, But takes the place of a man and a team.

It is not so much what you pay for a farm engine that counts as it is the satisfaction you get from the right one or trouble you get out of the wrong one.

Place Your Order Now

The War has made a scarcity of material and labor for two years. This created a shortage of farm machinery last year and affected seriously the output of engines. Prices are going up. They must. This is the time to buy.

THE "NEW-WAY" ENGINE
GOES AND GOES RIGHT

There isn't a farm engine built at any price that will give the same satisfaction and as little trouble as will a "NEW-WAY." Being waterless and perfectly lubricated it never overheats but delivers its full rated horse power all the time—every day, 365 days in the year. It is made from the best material throughout, assembled and adjusted with utmost care and precision and is guaranteed for life. In fact, you can't wear out a "NEW-WAY" engine by ordinary every day usage.

You Hold Your Dealer Responsible

Your local dealer has the engines in stock and is ready to make immediate deliveries. You can look the engine over; your dealer explains it; tells you of the many "NEW-WAY" points of superiority. You see and know the engine before you are asked to pay for it. Your dealer is always there to help and advise if needed. He can save you money.

There isn't one price for the engine, then more for freight or express.

MILTON.

Milton, Dec. 21.—The lecture given by Dr. Bodish in the Community House last Sunday evening was listened to by a good-sized, as well as an appreciative congregation. "How to Keep Well on a Much Less Food" was well explained. Dr. Bodish is expected to come again, and it is hoped he will be greeted by a well filled hall.

There will be no meeting in the Community House next Sunday evening as the Presbyterian and Friends' Sunday schools hold their Christmas service on that evening.

Mrs. Martin, who lived in Milton several years ago, died in Newburgh and the remains were brought here on Wednesday afternoon and buried in the M. E. cemetery. Miss Emily Martin of Highland attended the burial.

Dr. and Mrs. Leo Green of New York city visited Mrs. Green's parents, Justice and Mrs. Northrup on Wednesday. Miss Emily Northrup went with them to their home, expecting to visit Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Northrup and Miss Lottie Boss, all of New York.

The annual Christmas supper of the Presbyterian Church and Sunday school will be held in the parlors of the church on Thursday evening, December 27 at 6 p. m.

The Christmas entertainment of the Presbyterian and Friends' Sunday schools will be held in the Presbyterian Church on Sunday, December 23, at 7:30 o'clock. The offering will be for the Syrian and Armenian Relief Fund.

Saturday afternoon will be for the boys at the Community House. Young men will meet there also, on Saturday afternoon, to organize a hockey team.

On Wednesday evening next the Camp Fire Girls will meet with Miss Rachel Clarke. Miss Clarke will meet with the children on Thursday afternoon at the Community House.

On Wednesday afternoon maids and matrons will meet at the same place to further the interests of the community.

George Perkins, who has been ill with scarlet fever for about two weeks, is recovering nicely.

Miss Winifred Driscoll of Syracuse University is expected home this week.

A Christmas party will be held in the Community House by the Methodist Sunday school on Christmas Eve, at which a jolly good time is expected.

Prof. J. H. V. Dickinson is rehearsing with the M. E. choir for a cantata which will be given in the near future, time to be announced soon. Watch for this date as this concert or cantata bids fair to be well worth hearing.

Attorney J. E. Ball is in Buffalo on business.

The town board met Wednesday to canvass the soldier vote. The majorities at the November election were so large that it made no difference in the result.

Distinguished Men.

An English writer asks what year of the last century produced the most distinguished living men, and answers his own question by voting for the year 1840, in which year Thomas Hardy, Edward Clodd, Austin Dobson and Richard Whiting were born. Curiously enough, each of these men brought out a new book during the year 1917. Mr. Dobson's book, referred to, is called "A Bookman's Budget" and contains many entertaining bookish stories. Here is one: "Lord Lytton advised his son: 'Do you want to get at new ideas? Read old books. Do you want to find old ideas? Read new ones.'"

HIGH SCHOOL NEWS NOTES

The first boys' basketball game of the season will be played between the boys' varsity team of the high school and a team of the Catskill high in the high school gymnasium tonight at 7:45 sharp. Immediately after this game the girls' varsity of Kingston high will play a picked team of the girls' alumni. These games give promise to be well worth the price of 25c, and besides after the games there will be dancing for an hour or so at least.

Great interest has been shown by the boys in basketball this year and to pick a team of only five boys from the large number of boys who came out for the team was considered by Coach Buley as no mean task. The boys have been practicing at least two or three nights a week ever since Thanksgiving and have worked themselves into such shape that Catskill will certainly need to have a wonderful team if she goes home victorious.

The boys' line-up is as follows:
Webster, center; Johnson, r. g.; Wilson, l. g.; Martin, r. f.; Smith, l. f.; with Beeres and Fowler as substitutes.

The girls have been heard of before this year. They beat the Saugerties girls, 26-12 on Friday afternoon, December 7. Great was their victory. Although they won their first game they have not ceased to practice the art of basketball playing. This year they, as the boys, have shown an upward of interest in basketball, nearly twenty having come out for the team. Miss Siegle said that there was plenty of material for at least four teams and surely the chosen team of these four, ought to be a match for any brave five, even the alumni. The girls' line-up is as follows: Mary Hutchins, l. f.; Anna Hurley, r. f.; Minnie Simpson, c.; Helen Wood, r. g.; Pauline Van Wageningen, l. g.; Mary Brynn and Mildred Stuart are substitutes.

High School Patriotism.
For several weeks the high school lunch room has been observing Mr. Hoover's wheatless and meatless days. At first it was thought that these days would be rather poor financially, but it has been learned that on these days, which come on Wednesday and Friday, the sales at the lunch room counters have increased rather than decreased. Fish has been used as a substitute for meat, and rye bread, graham bread and other really good substitutes have been used instead of wheat bread. Miss Davis, who is teacher of the arts of cooking and house-keeping, said that she thought that the increase in sales of the wheatless and meatless days was due to the patriotism of the students, rather than to the superiority of the meals on those days.

VICTROLA FOR CAMP DIX APPRECIATED

The appreciation of a Victrola and records sent to the Ulster county boys of Company L, 310th Infantry, at Camp Dix, is fully indicated by the following letter from Sergeant Walter H. Gill to the Home Defense Committee:

Ulster County Home Defense Committee,
Gentlemen:
The Victrola and records were sent over to the barracks of Captain Card this morning. The records seem to be a most wise selection and everything arrived in the best of condition. It arrived, it seems to me, at a most opportune time, to cheer the boys up as almost simultaneously with its arrival came the order of Secretary of War Baker revoking the Christmas passes of the men, and the Victrola, I am sure, will be a great help in this connection.

Kindly permit me to wish you all a delightful Christmas from the boys.
Yours sincerely,
SERGEANT W. H. GILL,
Co. L, 310th Inf.
Camp Dix, N. J.

Highland Girl's Fiance Killed.

Miss Helen Hasbrouck, of Highland, has returned from Washington, D. C., where she was called by the sudden death of her fiance, Roy Griffen, who was crushed while stepping from a street car. As he stepped from the car a large truck struck him. He was employed in Washington and had enlisted in the army and was awaiting a call to the colors.

Watching Their Steps.

This morning pedestrians found it necessary to watch their steps unless they cared to sit down rather suddenly on the icy walks.

HEADS AND HEARTS ARE EXAMINED

Also Lungs of Camp Dix Soldiers
Are Investigated and All of Company I. Passes—Promotions and Disappointments.

Camp Dix, Dec. 17.—We have received our Victrola this morning and it has been kept busy right along.
When one gets tired playing it one of the others start in. Fred Pell, one of our men, made a stand for it and a place to keep the records.
Now we can sing and dance. The "Y" misses us now as we can enjoy ourselves without going to the "Y".

There were over a thousand men who enlisted transferred to Camp Dix from Fort Slocum, and they are still sending them here. We received forty of them and was surprised to find out they had a Glee Club among them. They rendered several songs for us tonight and it was some singing, what I mean.

They are not going to stay here.
They are going to be examined and clothed and then shipped to the branch of service they enlisted for.
Most of them are for the aviation and engineers. They received their first examination tonight and got their first shot of inoculation.

We were all taken to the base hospital to have heart lung and mental examination and everybody passed as far as I know. It is an awful hike to the base. It is about 2 1/2 miles each way. Three of our men had their ears frozen while going down.

Bill Roe received a postal from Matt Deegan who was transferred south. He said who ever saw the south is warm has to come to him and find out. They have eight inches of snow and sleep in tents. I guess they all miss Camp Dix.

There have been a number of noncoms appointed. Walter Gill has been made sergeant. E. Winchell, Harry Thompson, Al Kruger, Harry Lipkin and Chas. Brands have been appointed corporals.

It was a sad day here today when we were told that only 2 per cent of company could go home on pass for Christmas and New Years. This only makes four from our company to leave and they have been named.
None of them are going to our old town. We are all keeping on wishing our names will be called for New Years.

I guess I will close for this time
as things are dead here.

LIBERTY LOAN REPORT NOT TRUE

By Telegraph to The Freeman.
Washington, Dec. 21.—Emphatic denial that the next Liberty Loan will be for $8,000,000,000 at 17 per cent was made today by Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo. The denial was embodied in a formal statement, as follows:

"The report that the next issue of Liberty Bonds will be $8,000,000,000 and at 17 per cent is wholly unfounded. I wish I could make the patriotic newspaper men of America realize how mischievous and hurtful to the interests of the country such speculative statements are. When a decision has been reached about the next Liberty Loan it will be officially announced. Meanwhile, all other statements and rumors may be disregarded."

REOPENING OF THE SHANDAKEN CHURCH

Owing to the stormy weather the reopening of the Shandaken M. E.
Church, which was to have taken place last Sunday, was postponed until Sunday, December 23, at 11 a. m., at which time the reopening will be held with appropriate ceremonies, in recognition of a number of improvements that have been made to the church.

The Rev. A. H. Haynes of 26 Green street, who was pastor of the Shandaken M. E. Church about fifty years ago, for a full term of three years, and who was one of the most popular pastors that the church ever had,
will make an address at the reopening exercises. All former parishioners and friends of the church are invited to worship with the members of the church and enjoy the exercises.

Dance at St. Mary's.

On Christmas night a dance will be held at St. Mary's Hall by the Central Athletic Club. Palen's orchestra will furnish music for the dancing, which will be enjoyed until a late hour. A large crowd is expected and a good time is assured to those who attend.

"Ghost" Walked Thursday.

call it, on Thursday. The "ghost" walked a few days earlier than usual in order that the men might receive their money before Christmas.

LET'S MAKE THIS AN OLD FASHION CHRISTMAS!

THE CHILDREN MUST BE REMEMBERED

This practical gift giving may be all right, but to leave the little ones entirely without Toys, Books, Games and Dolls such as is expected by them of Santa Claus when he comes around is entirely wrong. Picture yourself back to childhood days, getting up intensely excited on Christmas morning with thoughts in mind of toys to amuse you for several months to come and find nothing but wear things. The children MUST have their Christmas; and more so at this time than at any other time in the history of this generation, because these are times when little hearts must be cheered and little thoughts be kept away from the real and dreadful things of war. And so let us all give the children toys this year. WE will do our share to make them happy and this is how we will do it. We went thru our stocks today and selected several hundred toys which we are going to put on sale from now until Christmas time or until they are sold out at prices that will come within the reach of the pocketbook of every parent who has a child at heart at all times.

ONLY RIVER BOAT RUNNING IS FERRY

This noon the Cornell tugs Washburn and Young came through the ice from Newburgh and will be laid up for the winter in the Rondout

The only river boat running in this

Cornell tug Itob is also still in commission to assist the Transport in breaking a channel through the river whenever necessary.

The Skillypet is still making trips back and forth across the creek.

He stabbed Louis Mandy five times in the side. The affray began with an argument between the two men.

ment with Russia.

HAIDING THE "BOYS OVER THERE" WITH TOBACCO AND PHONO-GRAPHS.

The man standing by the recording instrument is Harry McCloskey, who is also known to millions of owners of talking machines as Henry Burr. He has organized the artists, whose voices are recorded for talking machines, to keep the boys in the army and navy supplied with the latest talking machine records made.
The man at the desk is Alexander B. Dick, who is the organizer of the "Our Boys in France Tobacco Fund." Mr. Dick, who is a Scotchman, has two brothers with the British forces. Up to date over $100,000 has been collected for the fund. These two men have certainly done their bit to help the boys "over there."

MISSING DISTRICTS CAUSED DELAY

Deep snow fits and impassable conditions of roads were probably the reasons why election inspectors of the first district of the town of Denning and the second district of the town of Hawangunk failed to get their returns filed on the soldier vote, but similar reasons hardly could be given for the failure of the inspectors of the first district of the town of Lys and the second district of the town of Plattekill, whose returns also were missing when the board of supervisors reconvened at a county board of canvassers at the court house Thursday afternoon to canvass the soldier vote.

Chairman Rifenbary called the board of canvassers to order shortly before 10 o'clock and after returns had been made from other districts, the board took an hour's recess to allow the tabulation of the returns to be made by the clerks and in order for the board of supervisors might transact its business.

With the board reconvened, recess was taken until 1:30 o'clock this afternoon to allow time in which the inspectors of the four missing districts might get in their returns.

When the board of canvassers convened this afternoon it was found that the missing returns had been received from all of the districts except Shawangunk, whose returns had been sent by express from Pine Bush, Orange county, Thursday afternoon and had not been received yet in Kingston.

Dr. Frank Keator was present, and being with Team 9, Dr. Keator said: "If you love the American soldier, support the American Red Cross. While private gifts, when it comes to gifts for men at large, they must come from the Red Cross. Field service, hospital service and supply service is furnished by the Red Cross. Dr. Keator told the men at his countenance were warm, almost too warm and were well and warmly clothed. Dr. Keator also spoke of the Auxiliary Red Cross nurses who are at the base hospitals but not at the front.

Judge Jenkins said this is a drive, old fashioned kind, where the drill is held and others pound and pound. The judge said that in the hands of his executive committee he was the drill and he hoped there was a real impression being made.

Then Judge Jenkins called attention to the fact that beyond the war, when a conquered nation would be pounced upon and scourged by ignorance, fanaticism and greed. But beyond all this war and after the defeated nation shall be standing before the world, a cross stands out: The Red Cross, whose mercy and wisdom will see to it that those vultures of ignorance, fanaticism and greed shall not descend upon the conquered country. The speaker called attention to the fact that in other cities, Poughkeepsie, Newburgh, etc., lists were published of factories, business houses, hotels, which are 100 per cent Red Cross people, that is, that all employees have been made members. Kingston will do the same.

Mrs. Mac Millan, speaking for the civilian relief committee, called attention to the fact that many families who really can not afford it, are most loyal, but not financially able to become members of the Red Cross. The speaker called attention to the fact that many families who really can not afford it, are most loyal, but not financially able to become members of the Red Cross. The speaker called attention to the fact that many families who really can not afford it, are most loyal, but not financially able to become members of the Red Cross.

The following instructions were given workers at noon today: The returns so far indicate that the city is falling behind the county in this membership campaign. The executive committee believes that this is largely due to the fact that many workers have been satisfied to accept a single membership in a house without soliciting a membership from the other adults living in that house. We therefore suggest that the workers go through their district again and solicit in every house additional memberships where the flag is displayed without the red stars added to it. We also suggest that if workers will go in pairs better results may be attained, because they will be in position to better answer all arguments that may be presented for not joining in the Red Cross movement.

A campaign headquarters in the Y. M. C. A. will be kept open Thursday and Friday, the 27th and 28th. Anyone who did not receive their flag or Red Cross button, whose names are found to be enrolled, can call on either of those two days and receive them. During the remainder of the campaign, the office will be kept open to furnish or to give additional supplies as may be required by the workers.

We have asked the campaign managers in the different districts throughout the county to be present at the dinner at the Y. M. C. A. at 6:15 on Wednesday, the 26th, to give their final report on the work in the county.

The Red Cross in asking for voluntary service only calls upon members of the Red Cross. Members do not have to serve if called upon unless they do desire, and if they do not serve, they do not lose their membership in the Red Cross.

It is still talked about town that the money or that the cost of these noonday lunches is to be paid for from the membership fees received during the campaign. This, as we have stated before, is not true. The entire cost of the expenses of this campaign is to be paid from contributions received independent of any money received for membership in the Red Cross.

If workers are asked by people for additional stars to place on their service flags these should not be given unless the worker is certain that the stars are given for membership already paid for and for which they have not yet been given.

SOLDIERS MUST FILL OUT BLANKS

There is some misapprehension regarding the disposition to be made of questionnaires sent out by the local exemption boards to registrants who have enlisted in either the army or navy since the beginning of the draft. Questionnaires are sent under the law to all registrants except those who have been sent to the National Army training camps. Members of families of registrants who have enlisted should readress and remail the questionnaires to such registrant so that he may fill it out at the training camp where he is stationed. In cases where the registrant is employed out of town the questionnaire should be sent to him by his family in order to avoid trouble for him.

RYAN'S HARD LUCK.

John J. Ryan of No. 24 Adams street is playing in hard luck. He wanted to serve Uncle Sam but was rejected at Fort Slocum on the grounds that he was underweight. He was one of the men who enlisted at Poughkeepsie where he was accepted, but when he got to Fort Slocum although he tried to get in various departments he was turned down. This is the second time he has tried to enter the service but without success.

Railway Wreck Kills 46.

By Telegram to The Freeman. Louisville, Ky., Dec. 21.—Christmas cheer for scores of Kentucky families was turned into mourning today as the list of victims of the wreck at Shepherdsville increased to 46. Deaths of injured since the early morning crash by railroad officials account for the increased figures.

IN THE SERVICE OF OUR COUNTRY

Major Girard L. McEntee, U. S. Signal Corps, has been ordered to Camp Greene, North Carolina.

Word was received this morning that Harry B. Elmendorf, who enlisted a week ago in the Aviation Corps, left Fort Slocum Monday for San Antonio, Texas. Mr. Elmendorf graduated from St. Lawrence University last June. Since then he has been working in Fleischmanns, N. Y. He is a son of Wilson D. Elmendorf of this city.

Word has been received of the safe arrival at Camp Meade, Md., of Thomas P. Waye formerly of Eddyville, but who at the time of his enlistment was living with his sister, Mrs. John Reynolds, at 48 Van Buren street. Mr. Waye is an only son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Waye. Tom, as his friends call him, is one of the boys of Kingston who has made the great sacrifice of giving up a good home and friends to join Uncle Sam's great Army for humanity and democracy. He enlisted in 23rd Engineers and has been listed as foreman. He has passed a civil service examination and was one of the foremen in the construction of the road at High Falls the past summer. If he is sent "over there" the best wishes of his many friends from "over here" will go with him and they feel sure the great sacrifice he has made to his country will be crowned with success.

Klein Appreciates Comfort Kit.

4th Regiment Armory, Jersey City, N. J., Dec. 17, '17.

Dear Sir: The comfort kit arrived today and I appreciate it very much. It's exactly what I need.

We are housed comfortably in a big armory and I am in fine condition.

Our battalion is made up of two companies, recruited chiefly from the Pennsylvania R. R. system. A majority of us are telegraph or signal maintainers and we expect to take charge of a section of French railroad. Our work has been pretty easy as we have no use for much drill and only get one or two hours of it a day. We spend our time studying the Pennsylvania rule book and the wig-wag to learn the Continental Code as Morse is not used over there.

The last recruit was signed up last week, so we expect to sail very shortly. I got my third inoculation Sunday, just 16 days after enlisting, which is certainly rushing it some.

Thanking you again for the kit, I am

Respectfully yours,

PRIVATE SAMUEL S. KLEIN.

Co. E, 413 Telegraph Battalion, (Ry)

LOCAL DEATH RECORD.

Recent Deaths and Funerals of Persons in This Vicinity.

Isaac Love, 75 years old, died at his daughter's home in Highland Tuesday.

Want to Spend Holiday Home.

Today was another quiet day in police court and it looks as though old offenders are keeping out of trouble as they prefer spending the holiday at home rather than in jail.

CHRISTMAS TREES. HOLLY WREATHS

LAUGHED TO SEE GOLD TEETH

Tartars Indulged in Peculiar Antics to Induce Artist to Display His Decorated Grinders.

The artist who accompanied George Kennan through Russia tells an amusing story about an encounter with a party of tourists, who seemed very curious about the artist's pictures. As the Tartars were asked to the teeth, the artist thought it best to be amiable and smiled a broad and propitiatory smile upon the party. Whereupon the entire party smiled broadly in return and showed great interest in him. He smiled again, more broadly still; whereupon the Tartars came around in front of him and began to go through the most extraordinary antics, laughing still.

The artist gathered somehow that he was expected to laugh, too, and proceeded to gratify their evident wish. The more he laughed the more they laughed, and several big Tartars came around in front of him and lay down on the ground, rolling and tumbling. The artist laughed until his jaws almost cracked. The thing finally became a little alarming, and calling to his factious and interpreter, the artist bade him find out of the head man of the Tartar party what these extraordinary antics were all about.

"His excellency," said the Tartar, in explanation, "smiled upon us, and showed us something which we never saw before—teeth made partly of gold. And as the men of my tribe saw that his golden teeth were only to be seen when he laughed, they took all possible ways to make him laugh, and when they rolled on the ground before him, it was only the better to see into his mouth and behold the golden teeth."

Capturing Gorillas.

It is said that no gorilla has ever been captured alive after he is full grown. Gorillas fear nothing. Even when mortally wounded they show an agility, strength and ferocity which is astonishing. A traveler stated that it would take 150 men to hold down a gorilla with any degree of safety. On the other hand, all other apes are easy to capture. The usual method is for a trapper to seat himself where he is certain to be observed by these creatures and pretend to drink from a bottle of crude spirits. When he is sure that he has been observed, he leaves the bottle and goes away. The moment his back is turned the monkeys rush to appease their curiosity concerning the contents of the bottle. They like the taste of the spirits and quarrel among themselves for it till the bottle has been emptied. They are soon overcome by the intoxicant, and the trapper returns and gathers them up.

Our Other Selves.

The old Hebrew sage declared, "Wisdom cometh from the opportunity of leisure." It does not mean that a wise man must belong to what we call the leisure classes. It means that if one has only a little free time at his disposal, he must use that time for the refreshment of his hidden selves, says S. M. Crothers in the Atlantic. If he cannot have a sabbath rest of twenty-four hours, he must learn to sanctify little sabbaths, it may be of ten minutes' length. In them he shall do no manner of work. It is not enough that the self that works and receives wages shall be recognized and protected; the world must be made safe for our other selves. Does not the Declaration of Independence say that every man has an inalienable right to the pursuit of happiness?

LIGHTED CANDLES TOO GREAT DANGER

The following urgent official telegram has been sent from the Washington headquarters of the American Red Cross to all chapters in the United States, withdrawing the suggestion that lighted candles be placed behind the Red Cross "Service Flags" in windows on Christmas Eve. The widest publicity is desired.

Washington, D. C., Dec. 11, 1917
Immediate action. National Board of Fire Underwriters feels Chris-mas Eve ceremony involves fire risk and, in view of their judgment, desire to do all possible to guard against risk. Please instruct chapter heads and workers and give wide publicity through press concerning fire hazard involved and importance of not using a lighted candle. Be sure direction is given for taking down of all curtains, so that homes of less intelligent class as will not be endangered, then Christmas Eve observance can be carried through by raising of shades and letting light of room illuminate the service flag in the window, or an electric flashlight, as suggested, could be used on service flag. National Board does not expect us to withhold any posters or advertising already planned.

GEORGE S. FOWLER

The Red Cross is also endeavoring to have the following notice displayed in moving picture theaters
during the membership drive:

Important Notice:

Do not put a lighted candle behind the Red Cross "Service Flag" in your window upon Christmas Eve, to do so might cause fire. Your flag will be sufficiently displayed if you merely raise the shade or draw the curtains and have the room illuminated.
